“...grace and truth came through Jesus the Messiah.” John 1:17B

Becky, a young wife and new mother from Georgia, USA, wrote to us about her life's journey through foster homes where she experienced physical and sexual abuse until she met a special family and a Christian man. She told us that even though she felt her life now had meaning and joy something was missing. Her searches led her to AAG's article on How to Become a Christian and that was when she realized she needed to commit her life to Jesus Christ right then. She closed with these words, “I have a solid marriage and a beautiful baby girl! I want to raise her right and I know I need Jesus to do that. Thank you for the life altering prayer!”

Khosi, a middle aged man from South Africa, googled Scriptures on Prayer and Fasting and tapped on our AllAboutPrayer.org link. He had this to say, “I want to express my gratitude to you for the efforts you take to help spread the Word of God. The verses you quoted and the manner in which you explained them is quite fulfilling and empowering. I know that you didn't do this to get fame and acknowledgement from men but please do accept my gratitude to you.”

Martha from Denmark just had to let us know that she had recommitted her life to Jesus Christ as LORD and Savior. She wrote, “I have been trying to understand who I am and God's purpose for my life. Thanks for the article on Gifts of the Spirit it brought so much clarity and light into my life. I am so happy. Now I know my gifts are from God and they have been with me all this time. I want to use them to serve Him!”

Michael, a young orphan from Ghana, gave his life to Jesus Christ as LORD and Savior. He writes, “I want to follow Jesus because He is my Father and Protector. Without Him I cannot live in this evil world.” Michael is currently using AAG to grow in his faith.

After recommittting her life to Jesus Christ, Renjith from India wrote the following: “I have made many mistakes in my life which have led to three long years of legal battles. Thankfully, I have my only daughter with me and I consider this a gift from a loving and forgiving Messiah. I pray God will show this humble follower my true calling and identity in Christ.”

Rav is a young man living in the UK who is struggling with his faith. He writes, “I am struggling with my faith and want to grow with the Lord. It is my heart's desire to bring “the good news” to my friends and family and see them repent and turn to Jesus as I once did.” Please pray for Rav.

Gloria, a young woman from Nigeria, felt in her own words “broken and hurt” and came to AAG looking for God and forgiveness. She found both in our article God and Abortion and Forgiveness. She knelt down, bowed her head and asked Jesus Christ into her life as LORD and Savior. She tells us, “She is comforted by the knowledge that Jesus is with her always.”

Kirsha, from the United Arab Emirates, googled The Rapture and because our page was the number one Christian link she was lead to AllAboutGOD.com. After reading the article she had this to say, “It is undeniable, Jesus is coming soon! Thank you for your article and encouraging others to stay true to their faith.” She continues to use AAG to grow in her faith.
